

For Immediate Release
May 13, 2011

Contacts: Dan Williamson, Mayor's Office, 645-5300
Rick Tilton, Public Service, 645-7263

Mayor Coleman, City Council, Congressman Stivers, Business Leaders
and Consider Biking To Kick Off Bike To Work Week

Mayor Michael B. Coleman will be joined by Congressman Steve Stivers, members of City Council, business leaders and Consider Biking kick-off Bike To Work Week. Mayor Coleman will lead a caravan of cyclists, including local CEOs, on a bike ride to City Hall. The mayor and other speakers will highlight the city's 2011 bicycle facilities projects and update Consider Biking's 2 by 2012 CEO Challenge, which calls on business owners to bike to work and encourage their employees to do the same.

Who:

Mayor Michael B. Coleman
Congressman Steve Stivers
City Council Member Zachary M. Klein
City Council Member Eileen Y. Paley
Jeff Stephens, Executive Director, Consider Biking
More than 50 Columbus area CEOs

What:

Kick-Off of Bike To Work Week/2 by 2012 CEO Challenge

Where:

Franklin Park Conservatory, 1777 East Broad Street, followed by a caravan of cyclists to City Hall, 90 West Broad Street

When:

Monday, May 16
Remarks at Franklin Park Conservatory: 7:45 a.m.
Bicyclists Caravan To City Hall: 8 a.m.
2 by 2012 CEO Challenge Kick Off at City Hall: 8:30 a.m.